

FOR RELEASE February 26, 2009, 10 a.m.

The Rights Factory, Canada's boutique literary agency, today announced the following new and recent deals.

World rights to THE BEST OF MEN author Claire Letemendia's second English Civil War novel, in which Laurence Beaumont becomes chief spymaster to His Majesty, unaware that a traitor lurks close who will threaten his lover, his family, his King, and his very life, to Ellen Seligman and Lara Hinchberger at McClelland & Stewart.

World rights to GRAMMAR TO GO author Rob Colter's WRITING TO GO, offering top ten tips for clear and powerful writing for those transitioning to workplace writing, to Lynn Henry and Janie Yoon at House of Anansi.

Canadian rights to Author of TEA AND POMEGRANATES Nazneen Sheikh's MOON OVER MARRAKECH, a memoir about a woman's journey to find herself prompted by the heartbreaking betrayal of the two men she loves most, her husband and her lover, to find once again, meaning in her life, to Marc Cote at Cormorant Books.

World rights to SUPER PILLS author Steven Manners' novel, VALLEY OF FIRE, a darkly illuminating story of love and madness in the crucible of the Las Vegas desert, to Michael Carroll at Dundurn Press.

More foreign rights to winner of the 2005 Governor-General's Award for fiction David Gilmour's THE FILM CLUB, about his decision to let his 15-year-old son drop out of high school if the boy agrees to watch three films a week with him, and how the film club changed their lives: Complex Chinese rights to China Times, Simplified Chinese rights to Thinkingdom Media Group, Russian rights to Ripol Classics, and Korean rights to Grup62.

The Rights Factory Inc. is a literary agency that represents narrative intellectual property rights throughout the world. The properties include books, comics and graphic novels, film, television and video games. The Rights Factory Inc. is a privately owned company based in Toronto, Canada and is online at www.therightsfactory.com.

For more information please contact:

Sam Hiyate
sam@therightsfactory.com
+1.416.966.5367