

FOR RELEASE MAY 13, 2009, 10 a.m.

The Rights Factory, Canada's boutique literary agency, today announced the following new and recent deals.

World rights to Elizabeth Paulson's THE BOYFRIEND BOOK, packed with equal parts humor, snark, and sincerity, offering encouragement for single women -- especially those who are bored of blind dates and too pretty for online dating -- on their quest to find the perfect mate, to Ann Treistman at Skyhorse Publishing.

Film Rights to Andrew Kaufman's ALL MY FRIENDS ARE SUPERHEROES, in which an ordinary man has to convince his super-powered, but brainwashed wife that he hasn't abandoned her, to Mike Volpe at Topsail (producers of Trailer Park Boys).

Canadian rights to ALL MY FRIENDS ARE SUPERHEROES author Andrew Kaufman's THE WATERPROOF BIBLE, about a widowed rock star, his sad sister-in-law, two warring rainmakers, and a mermaid who hides her gills in order to walk on dry land to find her long-lost mother and ACCORDING TO FAMILY LEGEND, about a family matriarch who decides to give each of her grandchildren a unique and powerful gift, to Anne Collins and Marion Garner at Random House Canada.

Foreign rights to author Andrew Kaufman's THE WATERPROOF BIBLE, about a widowed rock star, his sad sister-in-law, two warring rainmakers, and a mermaid who hides her gills in order to walk on dry land to find her long-lost mother: UK/ANZ rights to Telegram, German rights to Luchterhand, Dutch rights to LJ Veen.

Foreign rights to J.M Kearns' WHY MR. RIGHT CAN'T FIND YOU: THE SURPRISING ANSWERS THAT WILL CHANGE YOUR LIFE -- AND HIS, which lays bare the myths that stop women from being successful in their own mating quests, shoots those myths down and offers an alternative plan of action for the "single but looking.": Complex Chinese rights to Rye Field Publications, Simplified Chinese rights to Beijing DOOK Publishing.
